

The First Annual

Beato Fest

featuring

Hans-Joachim Roedelius

Saturday, October 27, 2007

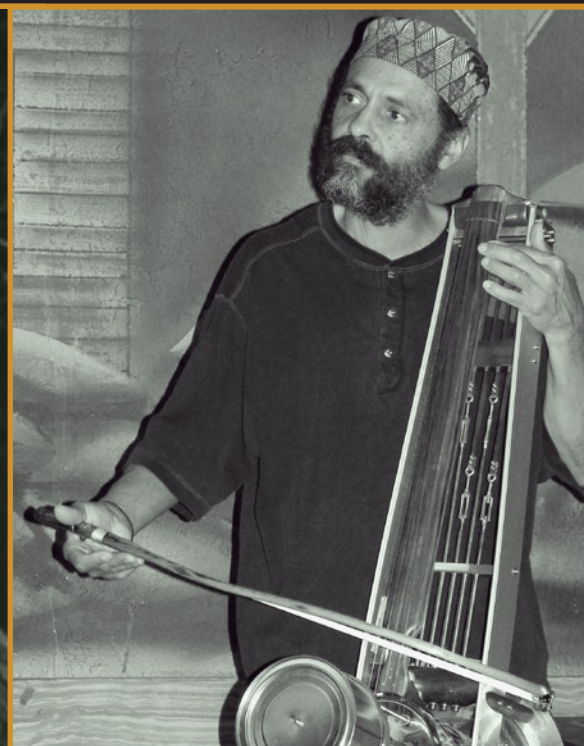

7:00 pm / Zalk Theatre

Besant Hill School / Upper Ojai

"Hans-Joachim Roedelius is one of the true originals of modern music. His delicate and wistful compositions seem to come from some long and secret musical tradition- like the meditations of Sufi poets, or the haikus of Zen monks. One senses that under their calm and unruffled surfaces there are complex and deep currents." -Brian Eno with special guests . . .

Molly Zenobia and Robert S. Hilton

Tickets available for purchase at the Beatrice Wood Center for the Arts

8560 Ojai-Santa Paula Road • Ojai, CA 93024 • 805.646.3381

www.beatricewood.com/roedelius

$15.00 in advance / $18.00 at the door

Coinciding with a solo exhibition of recent works by Rosa Roedelius,
"The Players, Where to Live, Who to Be?"

Exhibition dates: October 27 - December 31, 2007

Opening Reception on Saturday, October 27th, 2 - 6 pm at the Beatrice Wood Center for the Arts

www.beatricewood.com

"Mask" by Rosa Roedelius

